LUNE D'ORIENTE

ORIENTAL FOLK DANCE

Mysterious atmospheres, intense colours, spicy perfumes, candlelight infused with the sensuality of female movement. This is what we bring to you in "1001 nights: a journey through the centuries", an oriental dance spectacular provided by the Moons of the East, dancers with a passion for oriental dance. You will be carried on an imaginary space-time voyage tracing the story of the dance from its ancient origins up to our present day.

ALTO MATE

MEDITERRANEAN JAZZ

Fabrizio Bai presents his new album Alto Mate on stage in the Amphitheatre. The Latin timbre of this work is typical of this composer and is heard once again in these pieces. Some are a homage to the popular music of Argentina such as the Milonga, while others recall the Brazilian "Choro". The album seeks to add European colour to this through Italian melody and Giacomo Rossi's double bass and Andrea Libero Cito's violin help transport the listener into this Mediterranean setting. There are hints of modern jazz but always with a Latin rhythm.

OFFICINA DEL MALCONTENTO

BARBERA & CHAMPAGNE

As the title suggest this concert expresses the 2 characters of the group: that of popular traditional music and that of famous singer-songwriters. A musical journey through differing Italian regions, the repertoire coming from Italian and international composers including original works by Carla Baldini and Dino Simone. The concert contains songs in Italian, English, French, Spanish, Portuguese and Greek sung by Carla Baldini and Dino Simone.

LOCURA DE GUITARRAS

FLAMENCO - WORLD MUSIC - LATIN JAZZ

"Locura de Guitarras" translated from the Spanish as the madness of guitars expresses the main emotion that the two artists convey to the audience during the performance. Sometimes virtuous, sometimes romantic and always exciting the duo alternate original compositions by Riccardo Ascani with pieces from Latin American, Cuban, Spanish, Mexican, Latin Jazz & Mediterranean repertoires rearranged with care and flair in the Flamenco key. At the centre of the music the two guitars with their arpeggios and passionate melodies seem to talk to each other on stage as if they were alive!

'NA VOCE E 'NA CHITARRA

ARIAS, ROMANZE, ITALIAN SONGS FOR TENOR AND GUITAR

The voice of Marco Rencinai & the guitar of Silvia Tosi retrace the most beautiful Italian melodies. From Gluck's aria 'O del mio dolce ardor, the salon romances of Mauro Giuliani to the celebrated serenade 'Deh, vieni alla finestra'. Not forgetting the master of 'bel canto' Vincenzo Bellini & Giordani's famous 'Caro mio ben' & finally the most beautiful Neapolitan songs from songwriters like A' Vucchella di Tosti with lyrics by D'Annunzio & 'Era de' maggio' a poem by Salvatore di Giacomo set to music by Costa.

O SAMBA E O TANGO

SAMBA AND TANGO

The famous song by the Brazilian singer-songwriter Caetano Veloso gives its name to this concert which expresses the love that Nadia De Sanctis (a voice well known to the audiences of the Amphitheatre) has for the two largest countries in South America, Brazil & Argentina. Songs have been chosen from the vast repertoire of two genres, samba & tango. The skilful guitar of Fabrizio Bai and the wonderful cello of Andrea Beninati accompany Nadia in this journey of the heart.

TREMISSE

FROM CLASSICAL TO TRADITIONAL FOLK SONGS

The trio 'TreMisse' was born in the summer of 2017 with the aim of seeking to combine different timbres. Thus Sara Ceccarelli on flute & piccolo, Marta Marini on mandolin & guitare Silvia Golini on clarinet & bass clarinet got together to seek to create something new in the field of music. The pieces chosen range from classical to popular and have been specifically arranged for these instruments.

The name of the group has a double meaning, one coming from the name of a coin used in the late Roman Empire, the tremisse, the other coming from the number of members in the group with the addition of 'e' which is typical of the spoken Tuscan dialect.
